LR Gen 101 SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

(a) Title. These Local Rules are adopted pursuant to Title 28 United States Code, Section 2071, Rule 83 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and shall be known and cited as the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island ("Local Rules" or "DRI LR ___").

(b) Effective Date. These Local Rules shall become effective on January 1, 2006 and shall apply to all cases then pending and thereafter filed, subject to any amendments adopted thereafter.

(c) Applicability. These Local Rules and any amendments shall apply to all proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island; provided, however, that if the Court determines that exceptional circumstances exist in which application of a Rule would create an injustice or undue hardship, the Court may suspend the operation of that Rule under those circumstances. In addition to these rules, all parties must comply with any and all pretrial order(s) issued in any case, except where they conflict in which case the pretrial order(s) shall govern.

(d) Previous Rules and Orders Superseded. All prior rules, standing orders and general orders are superseded and abrogated.

(e) Construction. These Rules should be construed consistently with other applicable statutes and rules to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of all proceedings before the Court.

(f) Definitions.

(1) "Court" refers to the judge or judicial officer before whom a proceeding is pending, unless otherwise stated or unless the context in which the term is used plainly requires otherwise.

(2) "Clerk" means the Clerk of the Court and includes deputy clerks of court.

(3) "Marshal" means the United States Marshal and includes deputy marshals.

(4) "Conventionally Filed/Served" means documents presented to the Court or party in paper or other non-electronic format.

(5) "Document" means any written matter filed by or with the Court, whether filed conventionally or electronically, including but not limited to motions, objections, pleadings, applications, petitions, notices, declarations, stipulations, affidavits, exhibits, briefs, memoranda of law and orders.

(6) "ECF" means the Court's Electronic Case Filing System, which is an automated system that receives and stores documents in electronic form.

(7) "Electronic Filing" or "Electronically Filed" means the transmission of a document in Portable Document Format ("PDF") for filing using the ECF system facilities.

(8) "Filing User" means those attorneys who have a court-issued login and password to file documents electronically in this judicial district.

(9) "Main Document" means motions, objections, replies, stipulations, waivers, notices and other pleadings, but does not include attachments or exhibits to such pleadings.

(10) "NEF" means Notice of Electronic Filing, which is the email notice automatically generated by ECF each time a document is electronically filed.

(11) "PDF" means Portable Document Format. This includes both "Electronically Converted PDF Documents," which are created from a word processing system (MS Word, WordPerfect, etc.) using PDF creation software and are text-searchable, and "Scanned PDF Documents," which are created from paper documents run through a scanner and can be made text-searchable.

(12) "Megabyte" (MB) is the amount of computer storage needed to store 1,048,576 characters, which is equivalent to approximately 260 pages of an "Electronically Converted PDF Document" or 20 pages of a "Scanned PDF Document."

(13) "Page" from a PDF document for purposes of these rules must be the equivalent of a "page" from a conventionally filed (paper) document which was prepared to conform with the requirements of these Local Rules.

Effective 1/15/13: New §(f)(2) and (3) added, and existing §(f)(2) – (11) renumbered as (f)(4) – (13). Effective 1/3/11: §§(f) and (g) incorporated into new §(f). Effective 1/5/09: §(b) amended, and §(g) added.

CROSS-REFERENCES

See LR Gen 113(e) (rules do not restrict Court from issuing general orders or administrative orders).

See also LR Gen 301(b).

LR Gen 102 DOCUMENTS CONTAINING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

(a) Privacy Protections. It is the responsibility of any party or non-party filing a document, not the Clerk's Office, to review each document to determine if pleadings are in compliance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2, Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1, and the Judicial Conference Policy on Privacy and Public Access to the Electronic Case Files.

If the Court finds a document that contains personal identifiers referenced in Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1, the Clerk's Office will limit non-parties' remote electronic access to the document containing the personal identifiers, and direct the party responsible for the filing to file a redacted version of the document.

(b) Sealed Documents.

(1) Filing of Sealed Documents. Documents may be sealed by order of the Court only upon the filing of a motion to seal. A motion to seal in accordance with LR Cv 7 and LR Cr 47 stating the basis for the sealing and the document(s) subject to the motion to seal must be filed electronically and will remain provisionally under seal until the Court rules on the motion. Documents submitted by a party under seal, provisionally or otherwise, must be stamped or labeled by the party on the cover page "FILED UNDER SEAL."

If the Court denies the motion to seal, the document(s) subject to the motion to seal will not be accepted for filing in the case.

(2) Service of Motions to Seal.

(A) Civil Cases. A motion to seal in a civil case may be served electronically if the party is a Filing User of the Court's ECF system. Parties who are ineligible to file and receive documents electronically or exempt from electronic filing must be served pursuant to LR Cv 5.1(b).

(B) Criminal Cases. A motion to seal in a criminal case must be served on all parties in the case pursuant to LR Cr 49.

(3) Limiting Sealed Filings and Redactions. Rather than automatically requesting the sealing of an entire motion or other filing, parties shall consider whether redaction would be sufficient. If only a portion of a document contains confidential information, the party requesting sealing pursuant to (b)(1) shall file both an unredacted version of the document and a redacted version that excises the confidential information.

(4) Exceptions.

(a) Sealed Cases. Parties do not need to file a separate motion to seal for pleadings or documents filed in cases that are sealed pursuant to statute, Court order, or local rule, provided that the document be stamped or labeled by the party on the cover page "FILED UNDER SEAL." Sealed cases would include, but are not limited to, grand jury proceedings, pen register requests, wire and video interceptions, and qui tam actions.

(b) Ex parte Filings. Parties do not need to file a separate motion to seal for pleadings or documents filed ex parte, provided that the document be stamped or labeled by the party on the cover page "FILED EX PARTE."

(c) Unsealing of Documents. Documents sealed by the Court may be unsealed at any time upon motion of a party or non-party or by the Court sua sponte, provided that the parties first are given notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(d) Use of Pseudonyms in Civil Matters. A party wishing to proceed pseudonymously in a civil matter before this Court must file a motion in accordance with LR Cv 7. Additionally, the moving party must simultaneously file a separate document listing the true name(s) of any pseudonym(s) used in the pleading that will be automatically restricted by the Clerk's Office upon filing.

Effective 4/1/24: §(d) added. Effective 12/1/18:§(b)(2) amended. Effective 12/1/17: §(b)(1) amended; §(b)(4) added. Effective 12/1/16: §§(b),(c), and (d) deleted, new §(b) added, and §(e) redesignated at (c). Effective 12/1/15: §§(c) and (d) amended. Effective 12/15/14: §§(a)(1) and (a)(3) deleted; §(a)(2) amended and redesignated as (a); and §(c) amended. Effective 1/3/11: §§(a), (b), and (c) amended; §§(a), (b), (c), and (d) redesignated as §§(b), (c), (d), and (e); new §(a) added. Effective 3/17/08: §§(a)(4), (b) and (c) amended.

LR Gen 103 EXHIBITS

(a) Custody. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Clerk shall maintain custody of all exhibits marked for identification and/or admitted into evidence in any proceeding except for sensitive exhibits. Sensitive exhibits, including but not limited to, narcotics and other controlled substances, firearms, ammunition, explosive devices, jewelry, liquor, poisonous or dangerous chemicals, money or articles of high monetary value, counterfeit currency, and biological hazards shall be retained by the party offering the exhibit prior to, throughout, and after the trial or proceeding.

(b) Disposition. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, within 30 days after the appeal is concluded or the time for appeal has expired, exhibits in the custody of the Clerk must be removed by the party that presented the exhibit. Exhibits not so removed will be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the Clerk.

Effective 12/1/19: §(a)-(c) deleted; §(d)(1)-(2) redesignated as (a) and (b). Effective 12/1/16: §(d)(1) amended, §(d)(2) deleted, and §(d)(3) amended and redesignated as (d)(2). LR Gen 105 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) New Cases.

(1) In General. Except as otherwise provided in (a)(2) and (a)(4) of this Rule, the Clerk shall randomly assign each new case to a district judge and a magistrate judge in a manner that evenly distributes the cases among them by type of classification as provided under LR Cv 5(b) or LR Cr 57(b).

(2) Related Cases. A civil or criminal case which the cover sheet indicates, or which the Clerk believes may be related to a case previously filed in this Court, shall be provisionally assigned to the judge to whom the related case was assigned. If the judge to whom the case is provisionally assigned determines that the case is not closely related, the judge shall return the case to the Clerk for random assignment as provided in (a)(1) of this Rule.

(3) Re-filed Cases. A civil or criminal case that appears to involve substantially the same parties and issues as a case or proceeding that previously was brought in this Court and dismissed or otherwise terminated shall be provisionally assigned to the judge who originally was assigned the prior case or proceeding, or if already assigned, shall be transferred to the judge who originally was assigned the prior case or proceeding.

(4) Assignment of Civil Cases to Magistrate Judges. The Clerk shall randomly assign certain types of civil cases identified by the Court among district judges and full-time magistrate judges. If a magistrate judge is randomly assigned such a civil case as the presiding judge, they shall conduct all proceedings, including a jury or non-jury trial, and order the entry of judgment in the case. Such assignments are subject to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 73 and LR Cv 73, and require consent of the parties. Any case for which all parties do not consent will be reassigned pursuant to (a)(1) of this Rule.[See Comment, end of Rule]

(5) Wiretaps. Applications seeking approval to intercept wire communications pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2516 shall be assigned to the Chief Judge. If the Chief Judge is unavailable, the application shall be randomly assigned to another district judge.

(b) Remanded Cases. Any case remanded to this Court for a new trial shall be reassigned to a judge other than the judge to whom the case previously was assigned. All other cases remanded to this Court shall be reassigned to the judge to whom the case was previously assigned, unless that judge determines that the interests of justice require that the case be assigned to a different judge.

(c) Emergency Matters. If immediate action is required with respect to some matter in a case and the judge to whom the case has been assigned is unavailable or otherwise unable to address that matter, the Clerk shall refer that matter to the Chief Judge. If the Chief

Judge is unavailable, the Clerk shall present the matter to the next most senior active judge who is available to hear it. The judge to whom such matter is referred shall act only to the extent necessary to meet the immediate need, and only until the judge to whom the case was assigned becomes available to hear it. If a judge to whom such a matter is referred determines that no immediate action is required, the request for immediate action shall not thereafter be presented to another judge.

(1) After Hours Filings. Counsel anticipating a possible need for an emergency filing, or emergency action by the Court, or both, during a period when the Clerk's Office is ordinarily closed should consult with the Clerk's Office at the earliest opportunity during normal business hours to make arrangements. A filing user should not expect that a filing made through ECF will be addressed outside normal business hours unless the filer contacts the Clerk's Office in advance to make special arrangements.

Effective 4/1/24: §(a)(5) added. Effective 12/1/17: §(a)(1) and (2) amended; §(a)(4) added. Effective 12/2/13: §(c)(1) added.

LR Gen 107.1 ELECTRONIC AVAILABILITY AND REDACTION OF TRANSCRIPTS OF COURT PROCEEDINGS

(a) Applicability. The 90-day restriction policy and the redaction procedures for transcripts listed below apply only to transcripts of federal court proceedings. Other transcripts, except those exempt under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2(b) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1(b), will be subject to the redaction requirements contained in these rules if they are filed with this Court.

(b) Restricted Availability of Transcripts for First 90 Days after Filing. Transcripts will be e-filed by the court reporter or transcriber through CM/ECF, and they will be available at the Clerk's Office, for viewing only, for a period of 90 days after filing.

(c) Review of Transcripts. Once a transcript is filed, counsel of record (and unrepresented parties) must review the transcript and request redaction of any personal identifiers listed in Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2, Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1, and LR Gen 102. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the following portions of the transcript must be reviewed: opening and closing statements made on the party's behalf; statements of the party; the testimony of any witnesses called by the party; sentencing proceedings (both the government and the defendant must review the transcript); and any other portion of the transcript as ordered by the court.

(1) "Standby" Counsel and CJA Attorneys. An attorney who is serving as appointed "standby" counsel for a pro se litigant must review the transcript as if the pro se party were his/her client. If an attorney represents a client pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act (CJA), including serving as standby counsel, the attorney conducting the review of the transcript is entitled to compensation under the CJA for functions reasonably performed to fulfill this obligation and for reimbursement of related reasonable expenses.

(d) Redaction Requests.

(1) Procedure. If counsel of record (or an unrepresented party) seeks a redaction of personal identifiers, a document entitled "Redaction Request" must be electronically filed within 21 days, or longer if the Court so orders, from the filing of the original transcript, indicating where the personal identifiers appear in the transcript by page and line and how they are to be redacted.

(2) Time Limits. If a Redaction Request or a Motion to Extend Time is not timely filed, no redactions will be made, and the original transcript will be remotely publicly available after 90 days.

(3) Additional Redactions. If a party wishes to request redactions in addition to personal identifiers, a separate Motion for Redaction of Transcript must be filed within 21 days from the filing of the original transcript. Until the Court has ruled on any such motion, the transcript will not be electronically available, even if the 90-day restriction period has ended.

(4) Filing of Redacted Transcripts. If a Redaction Request is filed, the court reporter or transcriber must perform the requested redactions and file a redacted version of the transcript within 31 days, or longer if the Court so orders, from the filing of the original transcript. Unless the Court orders the original unredacted electronic transcript to be sealed, it will be retained by the Clerk and will be available, for viewing only, at the public terminal at the Courthouse and remotely electronically available to any attorney of record who has purchased a copy from the court reporter.

(e) Purchase of Transcripts. During the 90-day period, a copy of the transcript, in paper or electronic form, may be obtained from the court reporter or transcriber at the rate established by the Judicial Conference. The transcript will be available, for viewing only, at the public terminal at the Courthouse and remotely electronically available to any attorney of record who has purchased a copy from the court reporter.

(f) Availability of Transcripts after 90 days. After the 90-day period has ended, the transcript will be available remotely to view, download or print through PACER, and to view and print at the Clerk's Office.

(1) Redacted Transcripts. If a redacted transcript is filed with the Court, the redacted transcript will be remotely electronically available to the public through PACER after 90 days from the date of filing of the original transcript. Remote access to the original unredacted transcript will remain restricted, but both the original transcript and the redacted transcript will be available for viewing at the Clerk's Office unless the Court orders the original transcript to be sealed.

(g) Transcripts of Petit Jury Empanelments.

(1) Whenever a court reporter receives a request for a transcript of a petit jury empanelment, the reporter will prepare two versions of the transcript: one complete, unredacted version and one redacted version. The redacted version will have the juror names and any sidebars redacted.

(2) Redaction of juror names means that only the first full name and last initial of the juror will be used by the court reporter in preparing the transcript. Redaction of a sidebar will result in a complete elimination of the sidebar from the transcript.

(3) The redacted transcript will be e-filed by the court reporter in accordance with, and be subject to, the provisions of this Rule.

(4) The complete, unredacted transcript will be e-filed by the court reporter for "restricted" viewing only by the Court and the parties. The "restricted" availability of the transcript to the parties will also be governed by the availability provisions of this Rule during the first 90 days after filing.

(5) If a non-party requests a complete, unredacted copy of a petit jury empanelment transcript, the request will be sent to the presiding judge in that case, and the presiding judge will make a determination as to whether or not the complete, unredacted copy should be provided to the non-party.

Effective 12/1/11: The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 108 INTERPRETERS

(a) Use of Interpreter. Whether a language or sign language interpreter is required in any proceeding shall be determined by the Court. No interpreter shall participate in any proceeding unless first approved by the Court.

(b) Requests for Interpreters.

(1) Cases Brought by the United States. In all criminal cases and in civil cases initiated by the United States, requests for interpreters shall be made to this Court's staff interpreter. The Federal Defender and counsel appointed by the Court representing an indigent client shall use the Court's staff interpreter, whenever possible, for all in-court proceedings.

Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, counsel for a party who intends to seek reimbursement for interpreter services provided outside of Court proceedings shall first request such services from the Court's staff interpreter. If the Court's staff interpreter is unavailable to provide such services, counsel may utilize a suitable replacement in accordance with the procedures outlined in the District of Rhode Island's Criminal Justice Act Plan.

(2) Other Cases. In all other cases, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a party seeking to utilize an interpreter shall be responsible for obtaining and compensating the interpreter; provided, however, any such interpreter who participates in a proceeding before the Court must first be approved in accordance with subsection (a) of this Rule.

(c) Number of Interpreters. Unless the Court otherwise orders for good cause shown, no more than one interpreter shall be provided, at Court expense, to any party.

(d) Auxiliary Aides for the Hearing Impaired. Interpreter services, including services rendered by a properly qualified sign language interpreter, for a person who is hearing-impaired or who otherwise has a communication disability shall be obtained in the same manner as language interpreter services. When a party or witness in a proceeding is hearing-impaired, the Court, where and to the extent appropriate, may provide auxiliary aids, such as real time transcription in lieu of a sign language interpreter.

Effective 12/2/13: §(b)(1) amended.

LR Gen 109 BANKRUPTCY

(a) References and Withdrawals of References of Bankruptcy Cases. All cases arising under Title 11 shall be referred automatically to the bankruptcy judge(s) of this District. The reference of any case or proceeding or any portion thereof may be withdrawn at any time by the District Court, sua sponte, or, for good cause shown, upon the motion of any party. A motion for withdrawal of a reference shall not automatically stay any proceeding, but the District Court in its discretion may order a stay.

If a bankruptcy judge or district judge determines that entry of a final order or judgment by a bankruptcy judge would not be consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution in a particular proceeding referred under this rule and determined to be a core matter, the bankruptcy judge shall, unless otherwise ordered by the District Court, hear the proceeding and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law to the District Court.

The district judge shall make a de novo review upon the record or, after additional evidence, of any portion of the bankruptcy judge's findings of fact or conclusions of law to which specific written objection has been made in accordance with the federal and local rules of bankruptcy procedure. The district judge may accept, reject, or modify the proposed findings of fact or conclusions of law, receive further evidence, or recommit the matter to the bankruptcy judge with instructions.

The District Court may treat any order of the Bankruptcy Court as proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law in the event the District Court concludes that the bankruptcy judge could not have entered a final order or judgment consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

(b) Jury Trials in Bankruptcy Court. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(e), a bankruptcy judge may conduct jury trials in bankruptcy proceedings where the right to a jury trial applies and all parties have consented.

(c) Reports and Recommendations by Bankruptcy Judge.

(1) Time for Objections. Any objection to proposed findings of fact and/or rulings of law by a bankruptcy judge in a proceeding shall be filed and served within 14 days after such proposed findings and rulings are served on the objecting party.

(2) Content of Objections. Any objection to the proposed findings of fact and/or rulings of law shall specify the proposed findings and/or rulings to which objection is made and the basis for the objection(s), and be accompanied by a transcript of any evidentiary hearing(s) before the bankruptcy judge. The objection shall comply with LR Cv 7.

(3) Responses and Replies. A response to an objection shall be served and filed within 14 days after the objection is served. The objecting party may serve and file a reply to the response within 7 days thereafter. Any response and /or reply shall comply with LR Cv 7. Unless otherwise permitted or required by the Court, nothing further shall be filed in support of or in opposition to an objection to a bankruptcy judge's proposed findings of fact and rulings of law.

(d) Appeals to Bankruptcy Appellate Panel. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. §158(b)(6), appeals from any judgment, order or decree of a bankruptcy judge which are referred to in 28 U.S.C. § 158(a) will be heard and determined by the U.S. Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the First Circuit unless a party elects to have the appeal heard by the District Court in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 8005.

(e) Appeals to District Court. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (e) or elsewhere in these rules, or unless otherwise ordered by the District Court, appeals or motions for leave to appeal to the District Court from any judgment, order or decree of a bankruptcy judge shall be governed by the applicable provisions of Rules 8001-8028 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure ("Bankruptcy Rules").

Extensions of time for filing motions for leave to appeal and designations of the record or issues on appeal may be granted by the bankruptcy judge for a period not to exceed 30 days.

(4) Dismissal of Appeals by Bankruptcy Judge. A bankruptcy judge may dismiss an appeal if the notice of appeal is not filed within the time specified in Bankruptcy Rule 8002.

(5) Record on Appeal. Upon the completion of the record on appeal, the bankruptcy clerk shall transmit the following to the District Court in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 8010:

(2) a copy of the bankruptcy judge's order denying the movant's motion to stay; and

(3) any written decision(s) and/or transcript(s) of any oral decision(s) of the bankruptcy judge stating the reasons for the orders referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection.

Such motion and any related objection(s) and replies shall be governed by the applicable provisions of LR Cv 7.

(g) Local Bankruptcy Rules.

(1) Authority. The bankruptcy judge(s) may make and amend rules governing practice and procedure in all matters referred to and pending before them.

(2) Notice to District Court. The bankruptcy court must give notice to the District Court of any amendment to the bankruptcy court's local rules prior to such rules taking effect. After notice is given, such amendment shall take effect on the date specified by the bankruptcy court, unless abrogated by the District Court.

(h) Applicability of Local Rules. In proceedings before a bankruptcy judge, the local bankruptcy rules shall apply. In proceedings before the District Court, these Local Rules shall apply unless the Court otherwise directs.

Any attorney allowed to practice before this Court shall be deemed to have conferred disciplinary jurisdiction upon this Court for any alleged attorney misconduct arising during the course of a case pending before this Court or the Bankruptcy Court in which that attorney has participated in any way.

(b) Forms of Discipline. When an attorney, after notice and an opportunity to be heard, has been found to have engaged in misconduct, the Court may:

(1) Disbar or suspend the attorney from practicing before this Court, if the attorney is a member of the bar of this Court; or

(2) Publicly or privately reprimand or censure the attorney; or

(3) Take such other disciplinary action against the attorney as the circumstances may warrant, including but not limited to the imposition of monetary sanctions.

The provisions of this subsection (b) shall not limit, in any way, the authority of an individual judge to impose any sanctions or take any other disciplinary action that is permissible and appropriate pursuant to the Local Rules or otherwise.

(c) Misconduct. Misconduct for which an attorney may be disciplined pursuant to LR Gen 209 may include:

(1) Violation of the Standards of Professional Conduct referred to in LR Gen 208;

(2) Intentional violation of these Local Rules or any order of this Court or the Bankruptcy Court;

(3) Failure to promptly provide the notifications required by LR Gen 203(b)(1)(B) and/or (C);

(4) Conduct which resulted in suspension, disbarment or any other disciplinary action taken against the attorney by any other court or disciplinary body having disciplinary authority over attorneys;

(5) Conviction of a crime; and/or

(6) A pattern or practice of violating §§526, 527, or 528 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Effective 12/1/18: §§(a)-(c) amended. Effective 12/1/15: §(a) amended, §§(c), (c)(2), (c)(4), and (c)(5) amended, and §(c)(6) added. Effective 12/1/11: Scrivener's error in §(c) fixed. §(c)(a)-(e) changed to (c)(1)-(5).

LR Gen 210 DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

(a) Definition of "Court." As used in LR Gen 210, the term "Court" refers to the active district judges of this Court, and any action taken or required by the "Court" refers to action by a majority of the active district judges.

(b) Initiation of Proceedings. Whenever allegations of misconduct by an attorney admitted or permitted to practice before this Court come to the Court's attention, whether by complaint or otherwise, and the applicable procedure is not otherwise provided for by these Local Rules, the Court may initiate disciplinary proceedings in any one or more of the following ways:

(1) If the matter has not already been referred by an individual judge to a disciplinary agency with jurisdiction over the attorney, the Court may refer the matter to such agency with a request that the agency report its actions to the Court. However, any action taken by the agency shall not necessarily preclude additional disciplinary action by this Court.

(2) Designate a magistrate judge or appoint special counsel to investigate the matter, to make appropriate recommendations to this Court, and to perform any other duty specified by the Court. The Court shall consider any recommendation made by the magistrate judge or special counsel but such recommendation will not be binding upon the Court.

(3) Provide written notice to the attorney specifying the alleged misconduct and affording the attorney an opportunity to explain, either verbally or in writing, why he or she believes that formal disciplinary proceedings should not be commenced.

(4) In cases where the attorney has been notified in accordance with subsection (3) and has failed to provide a satisfactory reason why formal disciplinary proceedings should not be commenced, or in cases where there does not appear to be any dispute with respect to the relevant facts, the Court may commence formal disciplinary proceedings in accordance with LR Gen 210(c).

(c) Commencement of Formal Proceedings.

(1) Formal disciplinary proceedings against an attorney shall be commenced by the issuance of an order by the Court directing the attorney to appear and show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against the attorney for reasons stated in the order.

(2) The order may be served upon the attorney by mailing a copy to him or her at the address provided by the attorney pursuant to these Local Rules or by any other means reasonably calculated to provide notice to the attorney.

(3) The attorney shall file a written response to the show cause order and the allegations of misconduct contained therein within 14 days from the date of the order. If any issue of fact is raised in the response or if the attorney wishes to be heard in mitigation, the Court shall set the matter for hearing in accordance with LR Gen 210(d).

(d) Hearing

(1) Forum. In the Court's discretion, any hearing conducted pursuant to LR Gen 210 may be conducted before a magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge designated by the Court, a single district judge or all of the active judges of the Court who are eligible and able to participate. However, if the disciplinary proceeding was initiated by a complaint by a district judge, magistrate judge, or bankruptcy judge; or, if a magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge made any recommendation to the Court pursuant to LR Gen 210(b)(2), any such hearing shall not be conducted by that judge, nor shall that judge participate in any decision or other action taken by the Court with respect to the matter.

(A) If the hearing is conducted by a district judge, the Court may authorize that district judge to order whatever disciplinary action is appropriate under these Local Rules without further action by the Court.

(B) If the hearing is conducted by a magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge, the magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge shall submit findings of fact and recommendations for disposition to the Court and the Clerk shall serve a copy of the findings and recommendations upon the attorney and any special prosecutor appointed by the Court.

(C) Within 14 days from the date of the order, the attorney and/or any special prosecutor appointed by the Court may serve and file written objections to the report. Failure to file an objection within the 14-day period shall be deemed a waiver of any objection. Those portions of the magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge's findings and recommendations to which objection is made shall be reviewed by the Court de novo based on the record compiled before the magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge. The Court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge or it may receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the magistrate judge or bankruptcy judge with instructions.

(2) Conduct of Hearing. The Court may elect to appoint a special prosecutor to present evidence at any disciplinary hearing and to cross-examine any witnesses. The respondent attorney shall have a similar right to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses and to be represented by counsel.

Effective 12/1/18: §§(a)-(d) amended. Effective 12/1/15: §§(d)(1)(A)-(C) amended. Effective 12/1/11: §§(c)(3) and (d)(1)(C) amended. LR Gen 212 DISBARMENT BY CONSENT

(a) Procedure. Any attorney admitted to practice before this Court who is the subject of an investigation into, or is a respondent in a pending proceeding involving, allegations of misconduct may consent to disbarment, but only by delivering to this Court an affidavit stating that the attorney wishes to consent to disbarment and that:

(1) The attorney's consent is freely and voluntarily given and the attorney is not subjected to coercion or duress; and

(2) The attorney is fully aware of the implications of consenting; and

(3) The attorney is aware of the pending investigation or proceeding and that grounds exist for disciplinary action, the nature of which the attorney shall specifically set forth; and

(4) The attorney acknowledges that the material facts alleged are true; and

(5) The attorney so consents because the attorney knows that the attorney could not successfully defend himself against the charges.

Upon receipt of the required affidavit, the Court shall enter an order disbarring the attorney.

(b) Confidentiality of Supporting Papers. The order disbarring the attorney on consent shall be a matter of public record. However, the affidavit required under the provisions of this rule shall not be publicly disclosed or made available for use in any other proceeding except upon order of this Court.

LR Gen 213 CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

(a) Criminal Convictions

(1) Summary Suspension. The Court shall enter an order immediately suspending an attorney who is a member of the Bar of this Court or who is admitted to practice pro hac vice from practicing before this Court upon receipt of:

(A) An official record of a finding of guilt or the return of a guilty verdict as to a serious crime, as hereinafter defined, or the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to such crime, in any court of the United States, the District of Columbia, any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, or;

(B) A certified copy of a judgment showing conviction of a serious crime, as hereinafter defined, in any court of the United States, the District of Columbia, any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States.

A copy of such order shall immediately be served upon the attorney as provided in LR Gen 210(c)(2). Upon good cause shown, the Court may set aside such order when it appears in the interest of justice to do so.

(2) Disciplinary proceeding. In addition to suspending the attorney, the Court shall issue a show cause order as provided in LR Gen 210(c), provided, however, that a disciplinary proceeding so instituted shall not be brought to final hearing until all appeals from the conviction are concluded.

An official record showing the entry of the finding of guilt, the return of a guilty verdict, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or a certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for any crime shall be conclusive evidence of the commission of that crime in any disciplinary proceeding instituted against that attorney based upon the conviction.

(3) Serious Crime. The term "serious crime" shall include any felony and any lesser crime, a necessary element of which, as determined by the statutory or common law definition of such crime in the jurisdiction where the judgment was entered, involves false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, willful failure to file or filing false income tax returns, deceit, bribery, extortion, misappropriation, theft, or an attempt or a conspiracy with or solicitation of any other to commit a "serious crime."

(b) Reversal of Conviction. An attorney suspended under the provisions of this Rule will be reinstated immediately upon the filing of a certificate demonstrating that the conviction has been reversed but the reinstatement will not terminate any disciplinary proceeding then pending against the attorney.

Effective 12/1/11: §§(a)(1)(A) and (a)(2) amended. Effective 10/1/09: §(a)(1) amended and redesignated as (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B); §(a)(2) amended.

LR Gen 214 ACTION TAKEN BY OTHER COURTS OR DISCIPLINARY AGENCIES

(a) Show Cause Order. When a certified copy of a judgment or order is filed with this Court showing that an attorney who is a member of the Bar of this Court or who is admitted to practice before this Court pro hac vice has been disciplined or found incapacitated to practice by any other court of the United States, the District of Columbia, any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States or by any agency having disciplinary authority over attorneys, whether by reason of misconduct, mental infirmity or addiction to drugs or intoxicants, this Court shall, forthwith:

(1) provide the attorney with a copy of the judgment or order; and

(2) issue an order directing the attorney to show cause, within 14 days from the date of the order, why this Court should not impose the identical discipline and/or make a similar finding of incapacity.

In the event the action imposed in the other jurisdiction has been stayed there, any reciprocal action taken by this Court shall be deferred until such stay expires.

(b) Disciplinary Action. If the attorney fails to show cause within the aforesaid 14-day period, this Court shall impose the identical discipline or make the identical finding of incapacity.

(c) Effect of Decision by Other Tribunal.

(1) If, with respect to the action taken by the other tribunal, this Court finds:

(A) that the procedure was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process, or

(B) that there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct or incapacity as to give rise to the clear conviction that this Court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the tribunal's conclusion on that subject;

(C) that the imposition of the same discipline or the making of the same finding by this Court would result in grave injustice; or

(D) that the conduct at issue is deemed by this Court to warrant substantially different action, then this Court may enter such other orders as it deems appropriate.

(2) In all other respects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that an attorney has been guilty of misconduct or found incapacitated shall establish conclusively the misconduct or incapacity for purposes of any proceeding under LR Gen 214. Where an attorney has been found to be incapacitated, the Court shall enter an order placing the attorney on inactive status, in which case the attorney may not practice before this Court unless and until reinstated pursuant to LR Gen 215.

Effective 12/1/18: §(c)(2) amended. Effective 12/1/11: §(a)(2) amended. The numerical references in this rule were altered as part of the restyling of numerical references throughout the Local Rules. Effective 12/1/09: §§(a)(2) and (b) amended.

LR Gen 215 REINSTATEMENT OF MEMBERSHIP

(a) Application for Reinstatement.

(1) An individual who has ceased to be a member of the Bar of this Court for any reason, including disbarment, suspension, failure to comply with the requirements for continuation of membership, resignation or failure to renew membership in a timely manner, may apply for reinstatement by filing a completed application for reinstatement on a form provided by the Clerk and paying the applicable reinstatement fee established by the Court.

(2) An attorney who has been suspended also shall file an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of the order of suspension along with the application for reinstatement.

(3) An attorney who has been disbarred after hearing or by consent may not apply for reinstatement until at least 5 years after the effective date of disbarment.

(4) An attorney who was placed on inactive status because of incapacity also shall file, along with his or her application, a written waiver of any doctor/patient privilege with respect to relevant treatment of the attorney during the period of incapacity. In addition, such attorney shall disclose the name of every psychiatrist, psychologist, physician and hospital or other institution by whom or in which the attorney has been examined or treated for any condition or conditions relating to the incapacity since being placed on inactive status and a written consent authorizing each of them to disclose any relevant information and provide any relevant records requested by the Court or special counsel.

(b) Procedure on Application. In ruling on an application for reinstatement, the Court may proceed in any of the following ways:

(1) Summarily approve or reject the application if the appropriate action to be taken is clear from the face of the application and there are no facts in dispute.

(2) Designate a magistrate judge or appoint a special counsel to investigate and recommend to the Court whether or not the application should be approved; provided, however, that such recommendation will not be binding upon the Court.

(3) Promptly schedule the matter for a hearing before the Court, a single district judge designated by the Court or a magistrate judge designated by the Court. However, if a magistrate judge has made a recommendation pursuant to this subsection, the hearing shall not be conducted by that magistrate judge.

(A) If the hearing is conducted by a district judge, the Court may authorize that district judge to rule on the application without further action by the Court.

(B) If the hearing is conducted by a magistrate judge, the matter shall be dealt with in the manner described in LR Gen 210(d)(1)(B)-(C).

(c) Conduct of Hearing. At the hearing, the applicant shall have the burden of demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is of good moral character and otherwise qualified and fit to practice law before this Court, and that the applicant's resumption of the practice of law before this Court will not adversely affect the interests of potential clients, public confidence in the integrity of the Bar of this Court or the proper administration of justice.

(1) The Court may elect or appoint a special counsel to present evidence at the hearing and to cross examine the witnesses.

(2) The applicant shall have a similar right to present evidence and cross examine witnesses and to be represented by counsel.

(2) When the Court, sua sponte, or in response to a motion for protective order, orders that such matters shall not be made public; provided, however, that any finding of misconduct shall be public.

LR Gen 302 EXEMPTIONS AND PRO SE LITIGANTS

The Clerk may grant an exemption on such terms and conditions as are appropriate and reasonable.

(b) Pro Se* Litigants. A non-incarcerated pro se litigant in a pending case may apply to the Court for permission to file and receive documents electronically on a form prescribed by the Clerk's Office. If the Court grants a pro se litigant permission to file documents electronically, that permission is limited to the case specified, and the Court may withdraw that permission at any time during the pendency of a case.

In the absence of a court order authorizing electronic filing, all pro se litigants shall conventionally file and serve all documents in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Criminal Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court, and all electronically filed documents must be conventionally served on the pro se litigant.

LR Gen 305 CONSEQUENCES OF ELECTRONIC FILING

(a) Filing Defined. The electronic filing of a document through ECF consistent with these Local Rules, together with the transmission of a NEF from the Court's ECF system, constitutes filing for all purposes of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court, and constitutes entry of the document on the docket maintained by the Clerk pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 58 and 79 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 55.

(b) Confirmation of Court Filing. A document electronically filed through the Court's ECF system shall be deemed filed on the date and time stated on the NEF received from the Court.

(c) Official Record. When a document has been filed electronically, the official record is the electronic recording of the document as stored by the Court, and the filing party is bound by the document as filed. Before filing a document with the Court, the Filing User must verify the accuracy and/or legibility of the document.

(d) Filing Deadlines. Electronic filing does not alter the filing deadline for that document. All electronic filings must be completed before midnight local time in order to be considered timely filed that day unless a different time is established by court order.

LR Gen 306 ENTRY OF COURT-ISSUED DOCUMENTS

(a) Entry; Force and Effect. All orders, decrees and judgments of the Court will be entered electronically, and the minutes of proceedings will be entered electronically, in accordance with these Local Rules, which will constitute entry on the docket kept by the Clerk under Fed. R. Civ. P. 58 and 79 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 55. Any order or other court-issued document entered electronically which contains a "/s/" in place of an original signature of a judge or clerk has the same force and effect as if the judge or clerk had signed a paper copy of the order and it had been entered on the docket in a conventional manner.

(b) Text Orders. A judge or authorized member of the Court staff may issue orders by a text-only entry on the Court's docket without an attached document. The text-only entry shall constitute the only Court order on the matter and such orders are official and binding. The parties will receive notice of such an order through the NEF.

(c) Proposed Orders. Proposed orders shall not be filed unless requested by the Court. When so requested, the Filing User shall submit a copy of the proposed order to the Clerk's Office by e-mail in word processing format.

Effective 12/2/13: §(a) amended. Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 308 SIGNATURES

(a) ECF Login and Password as Signature; Format of Signature Block. The user login and password required to submit documents to the ECF system shall serve as that user's signature for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 and for all other purposes under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and these Local Rules. All electronically filed documents must include a signature block with the attorney's name, bar registration number, address, telephone number, and e-mail address.

(b) Restrictions on Use of ECF Login and Password. No Filing User or other person may knowingly permit or cause to permit a Filing User's password to be used by anyone other than an authorized agent of the Filing User.

(c) Documents Requiring Multiple Signatures. The filer of any document requiring more than one signature (e.g., pleadings filed by pro hac vice lawyers, stipulations, joint status reports) must list thereon all the names of other signatories with a signature block for each as described in (a). By submitting such a document, the filing attorney certifies that each of the other signatories has expressly agreed to the form and substance of the document and that the filing attorney has their actual authority to submit the document electronically. A signatory or party who disputes the authenticity of an electronically filed document containing such "signatures" must file an objection to the document within 14 days of service of the NEF. The filing attorney shall retain any records evidencing this concurrence for future production, if necessary.

Effective 12/1/19: §(c) amended. Effective 12/1/18: §§(a) and (c) amended. Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 311 TECHNICAL FAILURE; FILING USER SYSTEM FAILURE

(a) Definition. A technical failure is deemed to have occurred when the Court's ECF site cannot accept filings continuously or intermittently over the course of any period of time greater than one hour after 12:00 p.m. (noon) on a given day. Known system outages will be posted on the Court's website, if possible.

(b) Filing Options. A Filing User experiencing a technical failure may conventionally file the document or send the PDF document to an email address set up by the Court, if it is accompanied by a declaration attesting to the Filing User's attempts to timely file the document using ECF.

(c) Relief. A Filing User whose filing is made untimely as the result of a technical failure of the Court's ECF site may seek appropriate relief from the Court.

(d) Filing User System Failure. Problems on the Filing User's end, such as connection problems, problems with the Filing User's Internet Service Provider (ISP), or hardware or software problems, will not constitute a technical failure under LR Gen 311(a) nor excuse an untimely filing. However, the Filing User may conventionally file the document or send the PDF document to an email address set up by the Court, if it is accompanied by a declaration attesting to the Filing User's attempts to timely file the document using ECF.

Effective 1/3/11: Rule added.

LR Gen 314 REFUND OF ELECTRONIC FILING FEES

(a) Authority of the Clerk. The Clerk is authorized to administer refunds of all duplicative or erroneous fees paid to the Court electronically. (a) Opening Statements. An opening statement shall not be argumentative and shall not exceed 30 minutes unless otherwise permitted by the Court. Counsel for a defendant may make an opening statement either after the opening statement of the plaintiff or after the plaintiff has rested. Counsel for a defendant may not make an opening statement after the plaintiff has rested unless evidence will be presented on behalf of that defendant.

(b) Recorded Conversations or Testimony.

(1) At least 14 days prior to empanelment, counsel for any party that proposes to offer a recorded conversation or any portion thereof as evidence shall furnish the Court and counsel with:

(A) a chronologically arranged list showing the date of, participants in, and approximate playing time of each such recording; and

(B) a transcript of each such conversation.

(2) Before offering any recorded conversation, counsel shall edit out footage that contains no audible discussion or contains irrelevant material so that the jury will not be required to listen for protracted periods of time to portions of recordings that provide little or no assistance in determining the pertinent facts. In order to achieve that objective, counsel shall meet and confer, in advance, in an effort to resolve any disputes with respect to editing.

(3) Within 7 days after such transcripts have been furnished or such other period of time as the Court may allow, counsel for any party disputing the audibility, completeness, or admissibility of any such recording or the accuracy of such transcript shall file an objection identifying the recording and/or transcript or the particular portion to which objection is being made as well as the nature of and grounds for the objection. In the case of an objection that any portion of a recorded conversation has been omitted, the party making such objection shall set forth the omitted portion(s) of the recording(s) together with a statement explaining why the omitted portion(s) should be included.

(4) Any objections to the accuracy or completeness of transcripts shall be accompanied by copies of the transcripts objected to on which proposed deletions and corrections are noted.

(5) Any dispute regarding editing and/or the accuracy of transcripts shall be called to the Court's attention promptly.

(6) Failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection (b) may be considered by the Court as a waiver by the proponent of the right to offer the recorded conversation(s) at issue; or, alternatively, as a waiver of the right to object to admission of the recorded conversation(s) and/or to dispute the accuracy or completeness of the transcript, as the case may be.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) The Court, in its discretion, may limit the time for any trial, hearing, or other proceeding, for any argument, or for the examination of any witness or completing the examination of any witness in such manner and upon such terms as may be just under the circumstances.

(2) Upon request by a party, the Court, in its discretion, may extend any time limits established pursuant to paragraph (c)(1) of this Rule. In determining whether to extend such time limits, the Court may consider:

(A) whether the party has adequately explained the purposes for which the additional time would be used and why the additional evidence or argument to be presented is essential to fairly decide the matter;

(B) whether the party has effectively and efficiently made full use of the time allocated to that party; and

(C) any other matters that may be relevant.

(6) in personal injury cases, a complete description of the injuries sustained, whether any of them are permanent, copies of all relevant medical reports, and an itemized statement of all past and future medical expenses that may have been or are likely to be incurred.

The documents referred to in paragraphs (4) - (6) may be filed under seal if necessary to safeguard the privacy of the minor or incompetent person.

(2) In any other case, the order of challenges shall be determined by the Court.

LR Cv 56 MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

(a) Statement of Undisputed Facts.

(1) A motion for summary judgment shall be accompanied by a separate Statement of Undisputed Facts that concisely sets forth all facts that the movant contends are undisputed and entitle the movant to judgment as a matter of law.

(2) The Statement of Undisputed Facts shall be a separate filing, not an attachment to the motion for summary judgment. Each "fact" shall be set forth in a separate, numbered paragraph and shall identify the evidence establishing that fact, including the page and line of any document to which reference is made, unless opposing counsel has expressly acknowledged that the fact is undisputed.

(3) For purposes of a motion for summary judgment, any fact alleged in the movant's Statement of Undisputed Facts shall be deemed admitted unless expressly denied or otherwise controverted by a party objecting to the motion. An objecting party that is contesting the movant's Statement of Undisputed Facts shall file a Statement of Disputed Facts, which shall be numbered correspondingly to the Statement of Undisputed Facts, and which shall identify the evidence establishing the dispute, in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (a)(2).

(4) If an objecting party contends that there are additional undisputed facts not contained in the moving party's statement of undisputed facts which preclude summary judgment, that party shall file a separate Statement of Undisputed Facts setting forth such additional undisputed facts. Such statement shall be prepared in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (a)(2), except that the additional undisputed facts shall be numbered consecutively to the moving party's undisputed facts.

(5) If an objecting party files a separate statement of additional undisputed facts and the movant contests any of those facts, the movant shall file a separate statement setting forth what additional facts are disputed, numbered correspondingly to the opposing party's additional undisputed facts, at the same time it files its reply pursuant to LR Cv 7.

(b) Supporting Documents. Unless otherwise requested or permitted by the Court, only the relevant portion(s) of documents submitted in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment shall be included in the attachments.

(c) Successive Motions. No party shall file more than one motion for summary judgment unless the Court otherwise permits for good cause shown.

(d) Objections and Replies. The timing and filing of objections and replies in connection with motions for summary judgment shall be governed by LR Cv 7, unless otherwise directed by the Court.

Effective 12/1/17: §(a)(1),(2), and (5) amended. Effective 1/3/11: §(d) added. Effective 1/5/09: §§(a)(2) and (a)(4) amended; §(a)(5) added. Effective 4/10/08: §§(a)(1) and (a)(4) amended. Effective 3/17/08: §§(a)(3) and (a)(4) amended.

LR Cv 67 DEPOSIT AND WITHDRAWAL OF FUNDS

(a) Receipt of Funds.

(1) Court Order Required. No funds shall be sent to the Court or its officers for deposit into the registry of the Court without an order signed by the presiding judge. The party making the deposit shall serve the order permitting the deposit or transfer on the Clerk of Court.

(2) Deposit with the Treasurer of the United States. Unless otherwise ordered, all funds ordered to be paid to the Court or its officers shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States in the name and to the credit of this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2041 through the depositories designated by the Treasury to accept such deposit on its behalf.

(b) Investment of Registry Funds.

(1) Court Registry Investment System (CRIS). Unless otherwise ordered, funds on deposit with the Court ordered to be placed in some form of interest-bearing account in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 67 will be placed in the Court Registry Investment System (CRIS) administered through the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts is designated as custodian for all CRIS funds.

Deposits made with the CRIS will be pooled with those on deposit with the Treasury to the credit of other courts in the CRIS and used to purchase Government Account Series securities through the Bureau of Public Debt, which will be held at the Treasury in an account in the name and to the credit of the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

(2) Interest-Bearing Funds. A separate account for each case will be established in the CRIS Liquidity Fund titled in the name of the case giving rise to the investment in the fund. Income generated from fund investments will be distributed to each case based upon the ratio each account's principal and earnings has to the aggregate principal and income total in the fund after the CRIS maintenance fee described in (c) has been applied. Reports showing the interest earned and the principal amounts contributed in each case will be prepared and distributed to each court participating in the CRIS and made available to litigants and/or their counsel.

(3) Interpleader Funds. Interpleader funds deposited under 28 U.S.C. §1335 are considered a "Disputed Ownership Fund" (DOF), a taxable entity that requires tax administration. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, interpleader funds shall be deposited in the DOF established within the CRIS. The custodian shall be responsible for meeting all DOF tax administration requirements, and is authorized and directed to deduct the DOF fee on assets on deposit in the DOF for management of investments and tax administration. The custodian is further authorized and directed to withhold and pay federal taxes due on behalf of the DOF.

For each interpleader case, an account shall be established in the CRIS Disputed Ownership Fund, titled in the name of the case giving rise to the deposit invested in the fund. Income generated from fund investments will be distributed to each case after the DOF fee described in (c) has been applied and tax withholdings have been deducted from the fund. Reports showing the interest earned and the principal amounts contributed in each case will be available through the FedInvest/CMS application for each court participating in the CRIS and made available to litigants and/or their counsel. On appointment of an administrator authorized to incur expenses on behalf of the DOF in a case, the case DOF funds should be transferred to another investment account directed by court order.

(c) Maintenance of Interest-Bearing Funds

(1) Non-DOF Maintenance Fees. The custodian is authorized and directed to deduct a fee of an annualized 10 basis points on assets on deposit for all CRIS funds, excluding the case funds held in the DOF, for the management of investments in the CRIS. The fee is assessed from interest earnings to the pool before a pro rata distribution of earnings is made to individual accounts.

(2) DOF Maintenance Fees. The custodian is authorized and directed to deduce the DOF fee of an annualized 20 basis points on assets on deposit in the DOF for management of investments and tax administration. The DOF fee is assessed from interest earning to the pool before a pro rata distribution of earnings is made to individual accounts.

(d) Disbursement of Funds.

(1) Disbursement of Interest Bearing Funds. No interest-bearing funds may be paid out of the registry except by order of the Court. The custodian shall disburse all registry principal and income, if applicable, less the registry fee assessment, pursuant to the Court's order. Any such order shall set forth the funds in question and name(s) of the payee(s).

(2) Disbursement of Non-Interest Bearing Funds. No non-interest bearing funds may be paid out of the registry except by order of the Court. Any such order shall set forth the funds in question and name(s) of the payee(s).

(1) the amount due on the judgment and an explanation of how that amount has been calculated;

(2) that a demand for payment has been made and refused; and

(3) what efforts have been made to recover the judgment.

LAR E ACTIONS IN REM AND QUASI IN REM: GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) Itemized Demand/or Judgment. The demand for judgment in every complaint filed under Supplemental Rule B or Supplemental Rule C shall allege the dollar amount of the debt or damages for which the action was commenced. The demand for judgment shall also allege the nature of other items of damage. The amount of the special bond posted under Supplemental Rule E(5)(a) may be based upon these allegations.

(2) Salvage Action Complaints. In an action for a salvage reward, the complaint shall allege the dollar value of the vessel, cargo, freight, and other property salved, and the dollar amount of the reward claimed.

(3) Verification of Pleadings. Every complaint in Supplemental Rule B, C, and D actions shall be verified upon oath or solemn affirmation, or in the form provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1746, by a party or by an authorized officer of a corporate party. If no party or authorized corporate officer is present within the district, verification of a complaint may be made by an agent, attorney in fact, or attorney of record, who shall state the sources of the knowledge, information and belief contained in the complaint; declare that the document verified is true to the best of that knowledge, information, and belief; state why verification is not made by the party or an authorized corporate officer; and state that the affiant is authorized so to verify. A verification not made by a party or authorized corporate officer will be deemed to have been made by the party as if verified personally. If the verification was not made by a party or authorized corporate officer, any interested party may move, with or without requesting a stay, for the personal oath of a party or an authorized corporate officer, which shall be procured by commission or as otherwise ordered.

(4) Review by Judicial Officer. Unless otherwise required by the judicial officer, the review of complaints and papers called for by Supplemental Rules B(1) and C(3) does not require the affiant party or attorney to be present. The applicant for review shall include a form of order to the Clerk which, upon signature by the judicial officer, will direct the arrest, attachment or garnishment sought by the applicant. In exigent circumstances, the certification of the plaintiff or his attorney under Supplemental Rules B and C shall consist of an affidavit or a declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 describing in detail the facts that establish the exigent circumstances.

(5) Return of Service. The party who requests a warrant of arrest or process of attachment or garnishment shall provide instructions to the Marshal. A person specially appointed by the Court under Supplemental Rules B or C who has served process of maritime attachment and garnishment or a warrant of arrest that seized property shall promptly file a verified return showing the name of the individual on whom the process or warrant was served, the identity of the person or entity on whom service was made, the documents served, the manner in which service was completed (e.g., personal delivery), and the address, date and time of service.

(6) Appraisal. In the event the parties do not promptly and mutually agree on the amount of substitute security, an order for appraisal of property so that security may be given or altered will be entered upon motion. If the parties do not agree in writing upon an appraiser, a judicial officer will appoint the appraiser. The appraiser shall be sworn to the faithful and impartial discharge of the appraiser's duties before any federal or state officer authorized by law to administer oaths. The appraiser shall give 1 day's notice of the time and place of making the appraisal to counsel of record. The appraiser shall promptly file the appraisal with the Clerk and serve it upon counsel of record. Unless otherwise ordered, the appraiser's fee shall be paid by the moving party, but it is a taxable cost of the action.

(7) Security Deposit for Seizure of Vessels. The first party who seeks arrest or attachment of a vessel or property aboard a vessel shall deposit with the Marshal an amount deemed necessary and appropriate by the Marshal to cover the expenses of the Marshal including, but not limited to, dockage, keepers, maintenance, and insurance. The Marshal is not required to execute process until the deposit is made. The party shall advance additional sums from time to time, at the Marshal's request, to cover estimated expenses. A party who fails to advance such additional sums may not participate further in the proceedings except by order of the Court. The Marshal may, upon notice to all parties, petition the Court for an order to release the vessel if additional sums are not advanced within 3 days after the request.

Notwithstanding the provision of this LAR, seamen may institute and prosecute suits and appeals in their own names and for their own benefit for wages or salvage or the enforcement of laws enacted for their health or safety without prepaying fees or costs or furnishing security therefore.

(8) Intervenors' Claims

(a) Presentation of Claim. When a vessel or other property has been arrested, attached, or garnished, and is in the hands of the Marshal or substitute custodian, anyone having a claim against the vessel or property is required to present the claim by filing an intervening complaint and obtain a warrant of arrest, and not by filing an original complaint, unless otherwise ordered by a judicial officer. No formal motion to intervene is required. The intervening party shall serve a copy of the intervening complaint and warrant of arrest upon all parties to the action and shall forthwith deliver a conformed copy of the complaint and warrant of arrest to the Marshal, who shall deliver the copies to the vessel or custodian of the property. Intervenors shall thereafter be subject to the rights and obligations of parties, and the vessel or property shall stand arrested, attached, or garnished by the intervenor. An intervenor shall not be required to advance a security deposit to the Marshal for seizure of a vessel as required by LAR (E)(10).

(b) Sharing Marshal’s, Keeper’s and Substitute Custodian’s Fees and Expenses (Custodia Legis Expenses). An intervenor shall owe a debt to any party that has previously advanced funds to cover the expenses of the Marshal, Keeper and/or Substitute Custodian, enforceable on motion, consisting of the intervenor's share of such fees and expenses in the proportion that the intervenor's claim bears to the sum of all the claims. If a party plaintiff seeks to vacate or to permit the vacating of an arrest, attachment or garnishment, it may be vacated upon such terms and conditions as the Court may order, and if there are other plaintiffs remaining the Court may order them to share their responsibility to the Marshal, Keeper, and or Substitute Custodian for fees and expenses in proportion to the remaining claims and for the duration of the custody because of each claim, and otherwise as the Court may determine.

(9) Custody of Property

(a) Safekeeping of Property. When a vessel or other property is brought into the Marshal's custody by arrest or attachment, the Marshal shall arrange for adequate safekeeping, which may include the placing of keepers on or near the vessel. A substitute custodian in place of the Marshal may be appointed by order of the Court. Notice of the application to appoint a substitute custodian must be given to all parties and the Marshal. The application must show the name of the proposed substitute custodian, the location of the vessel during the period of custody, and the proposed insurance coverage.

(b) Insurance. The Marshal may procure insurance to protect the Marshal, keepers, and substitute custodians from liabilities assumed in arresting and holding the vessel, cargo, or other property, in performing protective services, and in maintaining the Court's custody. Any party who applies for arrest or attachment shall reimburse the Marshal for premiums paid for the insurance and shall be an added insured on the policy. The party who applies for removal of the vessel, cargo, or other property to another location, for designation of a substitute custodian, or for other relief that will require an additional premium, shall reimburse the Marshal therefor. The premiums charged for the liability insurance are taxable as administrative costs while the vessel, cargo, or other property is in custody of the Court.

(c) Cargo Handling, Repairs, and Movement of the Vessel

(1) Cargo Handling, Repairs, and Movement of the Vessel. Following arrest or attachment of a vessel, no cargo handling, repairs, or movement may be made without an order of Court. The applicant for an order shall give notice to the Marshal and to all parties of record.

(2) If an applicant shows adequate insurance to indemnify the Marshal for liability, the Court may order the Marshal to permit cargo handling, repairs, or movement of the vessel, cargo, or other property. The costs and expenses of such activities shall be borne as ordered by the Court. Any party of record may move for an order to dispense with keepers or to remove or place the vessel, cargo, or other property at a specified facility, to designate a substitute custodian, or for similar relief. Notice of the motion shall be given to the Marshal, keeper or substitute custodian, and to all parties of record. The judicial officer may require that adequate insurance on the property will be maintained by the successor to the Marshal, before issuing the order to change arrangements.

(d) Claims by Suppliers for Payment of Charges. A person who has furnished supplies or services to a vessel, cargo, or other property in custody of the Court, who has not been paid, and who claims the right to payment as an expense of administration, shall submit an invoice to the Clerk in the form of a verified claim at any time before the vessel, cargo, or other property is released or sold. The supplier must serve copies of the claim on the Marshal, substitute custodian if one has been appointed, and all parties of record. The Court may consider the claims individually or schedule a single hearing for all claims.

(10) Sale of Property

(a) Notice. Unless otherwise ordered upon good cause shown or as provided by law, notice of sale of property in an action in rem shall be published in the Providence Journal and/or such other publication as the Court may order at least once a week for 2 successive weeks with the date of sale being at least 14 days after the date the first notice of sale is published.

(b) Payment of Bid. These provisions apply unless otherwise ordered in the order of sale:

(1) The person whose bid is accepted shall immediately pay the Marshal the full purchase price if the bid is $1,000 or less.

(2) If the bid exceeds $1,000, the bidder shall immediately pay the Marshal a deposit of at least $1,000 or 10% of the bid, whichever is greater, and shall pay the balance within 3 days.

(3) If an objection to the sale is filed within the period in LAR E(10)(b)(2), the bidder is excused from paying the balance of the purchase price until 3 days after the sale is confirmed.

(4) Payment shall be made in cash, by certified check, or by cashier's check.

(c) Late Payment. If the successful bidder does not pay the balance of the purchase price within the time allowed, the bidder shall pay the Marshal, Keeper or Substitute Custodian the cost of keeping the property from the due date until the balance is paid, and the Marshal may refuse to release the property until this charge is paid.

(d) Default. If the successful bidder does not pay the balance of the purchase price within the time allowed, the bidder shall be in default, and the judicial officer may accept the second highest bid or may arrange a new sale. The defaulting bidder's deposit shall be forfeited and applied to any additional costs incurred by the Marshal because of the default, and the balance shall be retained in the registry of the Court awaiting its order.

(e) Report of Sale by Marshal. At the conclusion of the sale, the Marshal shall forthwith file a written report with the Court setting forth the notice given; the fact of the sale; the date of the sale; the names, addresses, and bid amounts of the bidders; the price obtained; and any other pertinent information.

(f) Time and Procedure for Objection to Sale. An interested person may object to the sale by filing a written objection with the Clerk within 3 days following the sale, serving the objection on all parties of record, the successful bidder, and the Marshal, and depositing a sum with the Marshal that is sufficient to pay the expense of keeping the property for at least 7 days. Payment to the Marshal shall be in cash, certified check, or cashier's check. The Court shall hold a hearing on the confirmation of the sale.

(g) Confirmation of Sale. The sale shall be submitted to the Court for confirmation. The Marshal shall transfer title to the purchaser upon the order of the Court.

(h) Disposition of Deposits

(1) If the objection is sustained, sums deposited by the successful bidder will be returned to the bidder forthwith. The sum deposited by the objector will be applied to pay the fees and expenses incurred by the Marshal in keeping the property until it is resold, and any balance remaining shall be returned to the objector. The objector will be reimbursed for the expense of keeping the property from the proceeds of a subsequent sale.

(2) If the objection is overruled, the sum deposited by the objector will be applied to pay the expense of keeping the property from the day the objection was filed until the day the sale is confirmed, and any balance remaining will be returned to the objector forthwith.

(11) Presentation of Emergency Matters. Emergency matters will be handled in accordance with LR Gen 105(c).

(12) Undertakings in Lieu of Arrest. If, in return for foregoing the arrest or stipulating to the release of such vessel or other property, a party accepts the written undertaking of a claimant or other interested person or entity to respond on behalf of the vessel or other property, the undertaking will become a party in place of the vessel or property sued, and will be deemed referred to under the name of the vessel or property in any pleading, order, or judgment.

LAR F LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

(1) Security for Costs. The amount of security for costs under Supplemental Rule F(1) shall be $1,000, and security for costs may be combined with security for value and interest unless otherwise ordered.

(2) Order of Proof at Trial. In an action where vessel interests seek to limit their liability, the damage claimants shall offer their proof first, whether the right to limit arises as a claim or as a defense. Nothing in this LAR shall alter the burden of proof for any party.

(d) Confidentiality of Grand Jurors. LR Cr 11 PLEAS AND PLEA AGREEMENTS

(a) Time and Form. In cases where a plea agreement is reached, the government shall notify the Court of the existence of the plea agreement as soon as possible and file a written plea agreement with the Court at least 7 days prior to jury empanelment. The Court will consider the timeliness of the filing of a plea agreement when determining whether, in calculating the guideline sentence range, the defendant should receive a reduction for acceptance of responsibility. The Court will not accept any plea agreement that is not in writing.

(b) Plea Agreement as to an Information. In cases where a written plea agreement is filed as to an information, the Court may schedule a combined arraignment and plea hearing before a district judge.

(b) Discovery Motions.

(1) All motions for discovery shall specify exactly what the movant seeks.

(2) No motions seeking discovery shall be filed unless counsel first confers with opposing counsel to determine if the information sought will be provided without the need for the filing of a motion.

(3) Any motion for discovery shall bear a certification by counsel for the movant:

(A) that all counsel concerned have conferred in good faith and have been unable to resolve the dispute(s); or

(B) that counsel for the movant has made a good faith attempt to confer with opposing counsel but that opposing counsel has failed to respond.

(c) Duty to Address Speedy Trial Act.

(1) All motions shall address:

(A) the number of days remaining, as of the date of the filing of the motion, before trial must begin pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act; and

(B) whether any delay occasioned by the making, hearing, or granting of that motion will constitute, in whole or in part, excludable time as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h).

(2) Any party objecting to a motion shall include with the objection a statement as to whether it agrees or disagrees with the moving party's calculation under subsection (c)(1) of this rule.

(3) A party that requests a continuance and contends that the resulting delay should be excluded under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) shall set forth reasons to support a finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of a continuance outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

(d) Need for Evidentiary Hearing. All motions and objections shall contain a statement by counsel as to whether oral argument and/or an evidentiary hearing is requested; and, if so, the estimated time that will be required.

(e) Speedy Trial Orders. (A) A subpoena duces tecum for the production, before trial, of documents, objects or other materials described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 17(c)(1) may be issued only upon the granting of a motion made in accordance with LR Cr 47. Any such motion shall be served on all other parties, unless the Court, for good cause shown, permits the subpoena to be issued *ex part*e.

(B) "Good cause" for the issuance of an ex parte subpoena duces tecum shall require, among other things, a showing that the documents sought are relevant to the proceeding in question and that disclosure of the subpoena (or of the documents sought) could unfairly harm the party's case.

(C) Any such subpoena, whether issued ex parte or upon notice, shall be returnable to the Court. All other parties shall be entitled to inspect any item(s) produced unless otherwise ordered by the Court for 7 days after production. During the 7-day period, the documents are held in temporary custody by the Clerk, and shall not be placed in the public case file. After the 7-day period expires, the party requesting the production of the documents, objects, or other materials shall retrieve the produced items from the Court.

P. 17(c)(1) at trial or at an evidentiary hearing shall be made returnable to the Court at the place, date, and time of such trial or hearing, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(b) Subpoena Ad Testificandum. Except as provided in Fed. R. Cr. P. 17(f) (subpoenas for depositions) or as otherwise ordered by the Court, a subpoena for the attendance of witnesses may be issued only to require the appearance of a witness at trial or at an evidentiary hearing, and such subpoena shall be returnable to the Court at the time and place of such trial or hearing.

LR Cr 23 OPENING STATEMENTS; USE OF RECORDED TESTIMONY; TIME LIMITS

(a) Opening Statements. An opening statement shall not be argumentative and shall not exceed 30 minutes unless otherwise permitted by the Court. Counsel for the defendant may make an opening statement either after the opening statement of the government, or after the government has rested. Counsel for a defendant may not make an opening statement after the government has rested unless evidence will be presented on behalf of that defendant.

(b) Recorded Conversations or Testimony.

(1) At least 14 days prior to empanelment, counsel for any party that proposes to offer a recorded conversation or any portion thereof as evidence shall furnish the Court and counsel with:

(A) a chronologically arranged list showing the date of, participants in, and approximate playing time of each such recording; and

(B) a transcript of each such conversation.

(2) Before offering any recorded conversation, counsel shall edit out footage that contains no audible discussion or contains irrelevant material so that the jury will not be required to listen for protracted periods of time to portions of recordings that provide little or no assistance in determining the pertinent facts. In order to achieve that objective, counsel shall meet and confer, in advance, in an effort to resolve any disputes with respect to editing.

(3) Within 7 days after such transcripts have been furnished or such other period of time as the Court may allow, counsel for any party disputing the audibility, completeness, or admissibility of any such recording or the accuracy of such transcript shall file an objection identifying the recording and/or transcript or the particular portion to which objection is being made as well as the nature of and grounds for the objection. In the case of an objection that any portion of a recorded conversation has been omitted, the party making such objection shall set forth the omitted portion(s) of the recording(s) together with a statement explaining why the omitted portion(s) should be included.

(4) Any objections to the accuracy or completeness of transcripts shall be accompanied by copies of the transcripts objected to on which proposed deletions and corrections are noted.

(5) Any dispute regarding editing and/or the accuracy of transcripts shall be called to the Court's attention promptly.

(6) Failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection (b) may be considered by the Court as a waiver by the proponent of the right to offer the recorded conversation(s) at issue; or, alternatively, as a waiver of the right to object to admission of the recorded conversation(s) and/or to dispute the accuracy or completeness of the transcript, as the case may be.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) The Court, in its discretion, may limit the time for any trial, hearing, or other proceeding, for any argument, or for the examination of any witness or completing the examination of any witness in such manner and upon such terms as may be just under the circumstances and with due regard for the defendant's constitutional right to a fair trial.

(2) Upon request by a party, the Court, in its discretion, may extend any time limits established pursuant to subsection (c)(1) of this Rule. In determining whether to extend such time limits, the Court may consider:

(A) whether the party has adequately explained the purposes for which the additional time would be used and why the additional evidence or argument to be presented is essential to fairly decide the matter;

(B) whether the party has effectively and efficiently made full use of the time allocated to that party; and

(C) any other matters that may be relevant.

(c) Voir Dire Questions. If and when directed by the Court, counsel shall submit a list of any questions that counsel requests the Court to ask prospective jurors during voir dire examination. Proposed questions for the jury voir dire shall be served and submitted to the Court at least 5 days prior to empanelment.

(e) Peremptory Challenges. Peremptory challenges shall be exercised orally or by executing challenge slips which shall thereupon be presented to the Clerk. Such challenges shall be exercised in the order prescribed by the presiding judicial officer.

(1) Order of Challenges. Unless the Court otherwise orders, in cases where the government is entitled to 6 peremptory challenges and the defendant or defendants jointly to 10 peremptory challenges, the challenges shall be exercised in the following order:

Government 1

Defendant 1

Defendant 1

(2) Alternate Jurors. Unless the Court otherwise orders, peremptory challenges to alternate jurors shall be exercised alternately by the government and the defendant(s), with the government exercising the first challenge.

(f) Foreperson. The Court may select one of the jurors to act as foreperson or may leave it to the jurors to select a foreperson.

(b) Presentence Investigative Report.

(1) Confidentiality of Presentence Reports.

(A) Presentence reports prepared pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(d) shall not be disclosed by the Probation Office or made public except:

Amended
ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PLAN
United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island

Table of Contents

I. INTRODUCTION

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 1998 requires that each district court authorize the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in all civil actions, including adversary proceedings in bankruptcy. The United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island provides this manual as an overview of the Court's ADR Program. The program seeks to encourage mutually satisfactory resolution of disputes in the early stages of litigation. Such early case resolution is likely to make more efficient use of judicial and private resources.

II. ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Prior to the Rule 16 (b) Conference, the Court will include with the Notice and Order mailed to the parties, a brief summary of essential ADR information. Copies of the Plan are available upon written request to the ADR Administrator: 2 Exchange Terrace, Providence, RI 02903, and can also be found on the Court's website at www.rid.uscourts.gov.

III. CASES SUBJECT TO ADR

All civil cases filed in this district except bankruptcy appeals, prisoner matters, and social security appeals are eligible for referral to ADR. Voluntary ADR options are available. If parties do not select a voluntary option, they are referred to a Magistrate Judge Settlement Conference.

IV. DEFINITIONS

A. "Arbitration" is a non-binding, adjudicative process in which a neutral decides the rights and obligations of parties and imposes an appropriate remedy in the form of an award. (Where parties mutually consent, parties may opt to have their dispute resolved through "binding arbitration.")

B. "*Magistrate Judge Settlement Conference" is a non-binding settlement process involving a Magistrate Judge, who works with the parties and their counsel to identify issues, promotes settlement dialogue and, if possible, resolves the dispute in a mutually acceptable way.

C. "Mediation" is a voluntary, non-binding dispute resolution method involving a neutral third party who tries to help the disputing parties reach a mutually agreeable solution.

D. "Settlement Authority" as used in this Plan means the individual with control of the full financial settlement resources involved in the case, including insurance and the full financial authority and ability to agree to a binding settlement agreement.

V. ADR ADMINISTRATOR

The ADR Administrator (the "Administrator") is appointed by the Chief Judge of the District Court and, while attached administratively to the Clerk's Office, reports directly to the Chief Judge. The Administrator possesses a full range of authority and responsibility to implement and direct the program options. In addition to directing and managing the court's ADR program, the Administrator also serves as a staff neutral, providing services as an arbitrator and mediator.

VI. PANEL OF NEUTRALS

The Court has established a panel of neutrals (the "Panel") comprised of individuals whose education, experience, training, and character qualifies them to act as neutrals in one or more of the ADR options implemented by the Court.

A. Appointment to the Panel

The Panel consists of persons appointed by the Chief Judge in consultation with the other district judges. Panel members may continue their appointment subject to demonstration of continued ADR education and the absence of any substantive change to the original application of the Panel member that would subject them to disqualification.

B. Qualifications and Training

Panel members are lawyers who have been admitted to the practice of law for at least ten years and who are currently members of the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island. The panel also includes non-lawyers who possess special or unique expertise in particular fields and/or have substantial experience or training in one of the dispute resolution options, and are certified for inclusion on the Panel by the Court.

All persons selected as Panel members have undergone dispute resolution training prescribed by the Court, taken the oath set forth in 28 U.S.C. 453, and have agreed to follow the guidelines for the various options established by the Court.

C. Compensation

Magistrate judges presiding over settlement conferences and the Administrator serving in the capacity of arbitrator or mediator serve without compensation. Persons, other than the aforementioned, serving as neutrals receive no compensation for the first hour of their service. Thereafter, the parties are equally responsible for the neutral's compensation at a rate agreed to by the parties, but not to exceed $200 per hour.

D. Complaints, Reviews, and Appeals

1. Filing Complaints

Any participant in ADR who is dissatisfied with an aspect of the process, including the conduct of an ADR provider (other than a Magistrate Judge) or another participant, may file a written complaint with the Administrator. The complaint may be in the form of a letter and should include the name and docket number of the case, the names of the parties, counsel and ADR provider, the date(s) of the ADR proceeding, and the reason for the complaint. The Administrator shall keep a record of all complaints filed. Any participant in ADR with a complaint relative to the conduct of the ADR Administrator may file such complaint in writing with the Chief Judge.

2. Response to Complaints

Complaints from participants in ADR will be reviewed and addressed promptly. The Administrator will screen any complaints received and may discuss a complaint in confidence with the person who made it and with the ADR provider or other participants. The Administrator will then consider all information available. With the exception of complaints alleging material violations of the Local Rules, the Administrator may attempt to resolve a complaint informally, and if successful, may dismiss the complaint without further action. While protecting the confidentiality of information gathered during the investigation of a complaint, the Administrator will notify the person who made the complaint about the dismissal of the complaint. Otherwise, review of a complaint will be done in accordance with the procedures detailed below.

3. Review Procedures

If the Administrator initiates a review of the conduct of a participant in ADR (counsel, party or ADR provider) for any reason, the Administrator will notify the participant of the pending review in writing. The Administrator shall collect and review all pertinent information, including interviews with or written statements from the ADR provider, parties' counsel and court personnel. On the basis of the information gathered, the Administrator will make a recommendation as to what action to take. With regard to complaints about the conduct of ADR providers, options include, but are not limited to: terminating the review without action, setting conditions or requirements for the ADR provider to meet, or suspending or removing the ADR provider from the Panel. The Administrator will pass the recommendation to the Chief Judge or designee for review and approval. The Chief Judge may elect to conduct further investigation of the matter. Upon completion of the review, the Chief Judge may affirm or modify the Administrator's recommendation, or decide on alternative action. The decision of the Chief Judge shall be final. The Administrator will notify the complainant and the participant about whom the complaint was made in writing as to the outcome of the review.

4. Removal

The Administrator, after consultation with and the approval of the district judges, may remove or suspend an ADR provider from the Panel prior to completion of the review procedure upon the Administrator's determination that it is in the best interests of the ADR program to do so.

E. Conflict of Interest

A neutral must disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest. A neutral should not serve if he or she knows of a conflict, unless the conflict is not significant and the parties all consent; otherwise, a neutral must withdraw if a conflict is significant.

VII. THE PROCESS

A. Rules Governing the ADR Process

ADR conference(s) shall be conducted in accordance with procedures outlined in this Plan.

B. Scheduling ADR Conferences

Upon the selected neutral receiving notice from the Administrator of his/her designation as a neutral, the neutral shall file his/her acceptance of the designation with the Clerk's Office with a copy to the Administrator, and shall promptly schedule the first meeting with the parties within 30 days, unless otherwise directed by the Court. Magistrate Judges schedule their own settlement conferences.

C. Time Frame for Conducting & Concluding ADR Settlement Efforts

At the discretion of the assigned district judge, the time frame for conducting and concluding ADR may be set forth in the Order of Referral. The deadline for concluding ADR may be extended by the Court upon good cause shown.

D. Location of ADR Conferences

Conferences may be conducted at such locations as are agreeable to the parties and the neutral assigned to the case. Space is available to conduct ADR conferences in the United States Courthouse. If the Court's facilities are desired, arrangements shall be made with the Administrator.

E. Duty to Attend and Participate

Unless expressly excused by the judicial officer or neutral assigned to the case, all parties, counsel of record, and corporate representatives or claims professionals having full Settlement Authority as defined in Section IV, shall attend all ADR conferences and participate in good faith. Failure to meet obligations under these rules may lead to disciplinary action.

VIII. CONFIDENTIALITY IN ADR PROCEEDINGS

ADR proceedings must be conducted in a manner that encourages an informal and confidential exchange among counsel, the parties, and the ADR provider(s) to facilitate resolution of disputes. The parties and the ADR provider shall not disclose information regarding the process, including settlement terms, to the Court or to third persons unless all parties otherwise agree. Parties, counsel, and neutrals, however, may respond to confidential inquiries or surveys by persons authorized by the Court to evaluate the ADR program. Responses provided to such inquiries or surveys shall remain confidential and shall not be identified with particular cases.

The ADR process shall be treated as a compromise negotiation for purposes of the Federal Rules of Evidence. The ADR provider is disqualified as a witness, consultant, attorney, or expert in any pending or future action relating to the specific dispute, including actions between persons not parties to the ADR process.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY IN ADR COMMUNICATIONS

The Clerk will file and include in the Court's record only the order referring a case to ADR and other routine ADR scheduling and proceeding notices.

Panel members must not disclose to or discuss with anyone, including the designated judge, any information relating to the ADR proceedings unless the parties specifically authorize disclosure. ADR neutrals must secure and ensure the confidentiality of ADR proceeding records. Panel members designated to serve as neutrals must keep confidential from other parties any information obtained in individual caucuses unless the party to the caucus specifically authorizes disclosure.

X. ADR OPTIONS

MEDIATION

Upon agreement of the parties, the case may be mediated. Parties shall make known their desire to pursue mediation by informing the ADR Administrator or the Court at the time of the Rule 16 Conference.

Within 10 days after having elected to pursue mediation the parties must arrange to confer with the Court's ADR Administrator in order to select a mediator to assist the parties in the resolution of the case. The parties must select from the Court's list of approved mediators (unless the court permits otherwise).

Upon selecting a mediator and having advised the ADR Administrator of the same, the Administrator shall file with the Court, the name of the mediator. If the parties are unable to reach agreement on the selection of a mediator, the ADR Administrator shall select a person from the list whose experience and qualifications are well suited to the appointment and the needs of the parties.

1. Preliminaries to Mediation

   A. Promptly after accepting the appointment, the mediator shall schedule the mediation session. The mediator shall send written notice to all parties, with a copy to the ADR Administrator, of the date, time and location of the session. The mediation session shall be held within sixty (60) days of the mediator's acceptance unless extended by the Court for good cause. A request for postponement of a scheduled mediation session must be presented to the mediator and served upon the ADR Administrator without delay.

B. The parties may be required to submit to the mediator a written, confidential summary of the case. The written summaries shall not be filed with, nor revealed to the Court.

2. Procedures at the Mediation Session

Mediators are not bound to any particular procedure to effectuate settlement. The mediator may find it useful to meet separately with the parties in a caucus. Disclosures to the mediator in a caucus shall be treated confidentially unless the parties give permission to the mediator to use the disclosed information with the other party or parties. No transcripts or recordings shall be made of the proceedings.

The mediator may determine, with the consent of the parties, or by leave of the court when it is the court's practice to require such leave, that one or more additional mediation sessions would assist in the settlement of the case, and, if so, schedule another session.

The mediator shall report to the ADR Administrator only whether the case settled or not.

ARBITRATION

1. Actions Subject to Arbitration

A. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and except as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c)) of 28 U.S.C. § 652 and subsection (d) of 28 U.S.C. § 654, this Court may allow the referral to arbitration of any civil action (including any adversary proceeding in bankruptcy) pending before it when the parties consent, except that referral to arbitration shall not be allowed when:

(1) the action is based on an alleged violation of a right secured by the Constitution of the United States; (2) jurisdiction is based in whole or in part on section 28 U.S.C. §1343 ; or (3) the relief sought consists of money damages in an amount greater than $150,000 (the Court may presume damages are not in excess of $150,000 unless counsel certifies that damages exceed such amount).

When parties select arbitration as the means by which they wish to attempt to resolve their case, they shall be deemed to have consented to the procedures that follow.[1]

Arbitrators

A. Selection.

The court develops and maintains by and through its ADR Administrator a list of qualified arbitrators. The list of arbitrators is located on the court's website (www.rid.uscourts.gov). The list can also be obtained by making a written request to the ADR Administrator at 2 Exchange Terrace, Providence, RI 02903.

1. Prior to the Rule 16 Conference. If the parties express an interest in pursuing Arbitration prior to the Rule 16 Conference, the parties may by mutual agreement select an arbitrator from the list of approved arbitrators. If the parties wish to pursue arbitration but are unable to reach agreement on the selection of an arbitrator, the ADR Administrator will select an arbitrator that is qualified to serve.

2. Following the Rule 16 Conference. Where the parties have indicated to the court at the time of the Rule 16 Conference that they wish to pursue arbitration, within ten days of the Conference, the parties shall submit the name of the arbitrator selected to the ADR Administrator. In the event that the parties fail to reach agreement on an arbitrator, the ADR Administrator will select a qualified arbitrator.

3. Notification of Appointment. The ADR Administrator shall promptly notify the arbitrator of his or her selection.

4. Notification of Hearing. When the selected arbitrator has agreed to serve, the arbitrator shall promptly send written notice to each party advising them of:

   His/her identity as the selected arbitrator;
   The date, time and location of the arbitration hearing (not to exceed sixty (60) days (except where extension of time is granted by leave of court) from the arbitrator's acceptance of the appointment.

B. Disclosure and Challenge Procedure

[1] These rules are an adaptation of rules employed by the American Arbitration Association in cases where a court orders, directs, or refers a matter to the American Arbitration Association (hereinafter "AAA"). The rules have been modified and adapted for use by this court.

Any person appointed as an arbitrator shall disclose to the Court and the parties any circumstance likely to affect impartiality, including any bias or any financial or personal interest in the result of the reference or any past or present relationship with the parties or their representative(s). Upon objection of a party to the continued service of a chosen arbitrator, unless waived by all parties, the parties shall select a new arbitrator from the court approved list or seek approval of the court to select an arbitrator who is not court approved.

C. Fees and Expenses

Arbitrators shall be paid for their services (including but not limited to preparation, hearing and rendering of an award or decision) at the rate of $200.00 per hour, equally split between the parties. Arbitrators shall be paid promptly when they file their awards with the court. Arbitrators may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred in connection with arbitration hearings.

D. Timing and Filing the Award

The award shall be in writing, signed by the arbitrator and mailed to the Court, specifically, to the attention of the ADR Administrator within 10 days of the conclusion of the arbitration.

E. Form of Decision and Delivery to the Court and Parties

The arbitrator's decision shall be in writing, signed by the arbitrator and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law. The arbitrator shall transmit the decision to both the ADR Administrator and the parties. The original decision shall be delivered to the ADR Administrator (in a envelope under seal marked confidential) who in turn shall deliver the decision to the judge's calendaring clerk. The clerk shall not docket nor open the award under seal for a period of 30 days pending a demand, if any, for trial de novo.

F. Telephone Conference/Preliminary Hearing

At the arbitrator's discretion, a telephone conference call or a preliminary hearing shall be arranged by the arbitrator for the purpose of determining the appropriate procedures, as determined by the arbitrator, for briefing of the issues involved in the dispute, exchanging documents, scheduling an oral hearing, if necessary, and any other procedures that the arbitrator deems appropriate to render a decision.

G. Date, Time, and Place of Hearing

The arbitrator shall set the date, time, and place for each oral hearing, if such a hearing is deemed necessary. The Arbitrator shall mail to each party notice thereof at least seven (7) days in advance, unless the parties by mutual agreement waive such notice or modify the terms thereof.

H. Representation

Any party may be represented by counsel or other authorized representative. A party intending to be so represented shall notify the other party and the Court of the name and address of the representative at least three (3) days prior to the date set for the hearing at which that person is first to appear. When such a representative responds for a party, notice is deemed to have been given.

I. Stenographic Record

Any party desiring a stenographic record shall make arrangements directly with a stenographer and shall notify the other party of these arrangements in advance of the hearing. The requesting party or parties shall pay the cost of the record. If the transcript is agreed by the parties to be, or determined by the arbitrator to be, the official record of the proceeding, it must be made available to the arbitrator and to the other parties for inspection, at a date, time, and place determined by the arbitrator.

J. Attendance at Hearings

The arbitrator shall maintain the privacy of the hearings unless the law provides to the contrary. Any party or designated representative having a direct interest in the case is entitled to attend hearings. The arbitrator shall otherwise have the power to require the exclusion of any witness, other than a party or other essential person, during the testimony of any other witness. It shall be discretionary with the arbitrator to determine the propriety of the attendance of any other person.

K. Postponements

The arbitrator for good cause shown may postpone any hearing upon the request of a party or upon the arbitrator's own initiative, and shall also grant such postponement when all of the parties agree thereto. The court may direct in its sole discretion that postponement not be permitted.

L. Oaths

Before proceeding with the first hearing, the arbitrator may take an oath of office and, if required by law, shall do so. The arbitrator may require witnesses to testify under oath administered by any duly qualified person and, if it is required by law or requested by any party, shall do so.

M. Reference Proceedings in the Absence of a Party or Representative

Unless the law provides to the contrary, the arbitrator may proceed in the absence of any party or representative who, after due notice, fails to be present or fails to obtain a postponement. A decision shall not be made solely on the default of a party. The arbitrator shall require the party who is present to submit such evidence as the arbitrator may require for the making of the Findings or Statement of Decision.

N. Serving of Notice

Each party shall be deemed to have consented that any papers, notices or process necessary or proper for the initiation or continuation of a case under these rules; for any court action in connection therewith; or for the entry of the Findings or Decision made under these procedures may be served on a party by mail addressed to the party or its representative at the last known address or by personal service, in or outside the state where the reference is to be held, provided that reasonable opportunity to be heard with regard thereto has been granted to the party. The parties may also use facsimile transmission, telex, telegrams or other written forms of electronic communication to give notices required by these procedures, but shall follow-up such communication with written notice served by mail.

O. Waiver of Rules

Any party who proceeds with the case after knowledge that any provision or requirement of these procedures has not been complied with and who fails to state an objection thereto in writing shall be deemed to have waived the right to object.

P. Closing of Hearing

The arbitrator shall specifically inquire of all parties whether they have any further proofs to offer or witnesses to be heard. Upon receiving negative replies or if satisfied that the record is complete, the arbitrator shall declare the hearing closed and a minute thereof shall be recorded. If briefs are to be filed, the hearing shall be declared closed as of the final date set by the arbitrator for the receipt of briefs. If documents are to be filed and the date set for their receipt is later than that set for the receipt of briefs, the later date shall be the date of closing the hearing. The time limit within which the arbitrator is require to make their Findings or Statement of Decision shall commence to run, in the absence of other agreements by the parties, upon the closing of the hearing.

Q. Arbitrator Immunity

Arbitrators who have been selected from the Court's approved Panel to serve in a specific case are performing quasi-judicial functions and are entitled to the immunities and protections that the law accords to persons serving in such capacity.

R. Trial de Novo.

Any party may demand a trial de novo in the district court by filing with the Clerk a written demand containing a short and plain statement of the reason for the demand. The party shall serve a copy of the demand upon all counsel of record and any unrepresented party. Such demand must be filed and served within 30 days of the date of the filing of the arbitration award, except that the United States, its officers and agencies, shall have 60 days to file and serve a written demand for trial de novo.

Upon the filing of the demand for trial de novo, the action shall be treated for all purposes as if it had not been referred to arbitration, except that no additional pretrial discovery shall be permitted without leave of the court for good cause. Any right of trial by jury that a party otherwise would have, shall be preserved inviolate. Withdrawal of the demand for trial de novo shall reinstate the arbitrator's award.

The assigned judge shall not admit any evidence at the trial de novo that there has been an arbitration proceeding, the nature or amount of any award, or any other matter concerning the conduct of the arbitration proceedings, unless:

(a) The evidence would otherwise be admissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence; or

(b) The parties have stipulated otherwise.
