

“CELEBRATING LAWYERS AND THE LAW”
100 Years in the Rhode Island Federal Courthouse
Friday, September 26, 2008

Program

8:30 - 9:00 a.m. Registration - Coffee and pastries available.

9:00 - 10:40 a.m. “Judges’ Personal Best” - Plenary Session in Courtroom 1

Panel: Chief Judge Mary M. Lisi, District Judge William E. Smith,
Senior Judge Lagueux, and Senior District Judge Ernest C. Torres

Moderators: Patricia Rocha and Karen Pelczarski

The panel will discuss cases over which they have presided and have impacted them personally.

10:40 - 10:55 a.m. Breakout Session I:

Civil - “Stop, in the Name of the Law” Lessons from the Bench
Regarding the Requirements for Injunctive Relief

Criminal - Federal Sentencing After Booker -and Rita -and Kimbrough-and Gall-and...” (Part I)

12:00 - 1:45 p.m. Luncheon at Providence Biltmore Hotel - Speaker: Michael S. Greco, Esq.

2:00 - 2:50 p.m. Breakout Session II:

Civil - Summary Judgement, Am I Doing This Right?

Criminal - Federal Sentencing After Booker -and Rita -and Kimbrough-and Gall-and...” (Part II)

Young Lawyers - Federal Magistrates Judges “Personal Best”

3:00 - 4:15 p.m. “Lawyers Making a Difference” - Plenary Session in Courtroom 1

Panelists include Professor Jarred A. Goldstein,
Walter R. Stone, Esq.; and Brendan V. Sullivan, Esq.

Moderator: Chief Judge Mary M. Lisi

This section will focus on the positive impacts lawyers have had on the judicial system and society at large. Panelist will draw on their own experiences to discuss instances where they have had such impacts.

4:15 - 5:30 p.m. Reception in Lobby of Courthouse

This program offers 5.5 CLE credits.

Home

Registration

Program

[Speaker &
Panelists](#)

Luncheon