

Credibility of Witnesses

In deciding the facts of this case, you may have to decide which testimony to believe and which testimony not to believe. You may believe everything a witness says, or part of it, or none of it at all. In considering the testimony of any witness, you may take into account:

1. the opportunity and ability of the witness to see or hear or know the things testified to;
2. the witness's memory;
3. the witness's manner while testifying;
4. the witness's interest in the outcome of the case and any bias or prejudice the witness may have;
5. whether other evidence contradicted the witness's testimony; and
6. the reasonableness of the witness's testimony in light of all the evidence.
