JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Duty of Jury to Find Facts and Follow Law

Members of the jury, now that you have heard all the evidence and the arguments of the attorneys, it is my duty to instruct you on the law that applies to this case.

It is your duty to find the facts from all the evidence in the case. To those facts you will apply the law as I give it to you. You must follow the law as I give it to you whether you agree with it or not. You must not be influenced by any personal likes or dislikes, opinions, prejudices, or sympathy. That means that you must decide the case solely on the evidence before you. You will recall that you took an oath promising to do so at the beginning of the case.

In following my instructions, you must follow all of them and not single out some and ignore others; they are all equally important. Also, you must not read into these instructions or into anything the court may have said or done as giving any suggestion as to what verdict you should return - that is a matter entirely up to you.

You should not worry about memorizing or writing down all of the instructions as I state them, because I will send into the jury room a written copy of my instructions. However, you must know that the law is as I will give it to you from the bench; the written copy is merely a guide to assist you.
