

Witness - Impeachment - Prior Statements

In assessing the credibility of a witness, you may also consider whether, on some prior occasion, the witness made statements that contradict the testimony he or she gave at the time of trial. If you conclude that a witness did, at some prior time, make statements that were materially different from what the witness said during this trial, you may take this into account in assessing the credibility of such witness, or determining the weight that you will give to such witness's testimony.
